

Little Fish Films Competition – Copyright Licence and Moral Rights Waiver

Please complete and retain this form for each student taking part in the film production.

I understand that:

- The Student named below is participating in the Little Fish Films Competition conducted by the Fisheries Research and Development Corporation (FRDC).
- The Competition is subject to the Little Fish Films Terms and Conditions.
- As part of their participation, the Student may produce works (including drawings, photos, videos, music, text and films) that are protected by Australian or international copyright laws.
- In order for the Student to participate, the school needs to be able to give the FRDC a licence on the terms set out in clause 9 of the Little Fish Films Terms and Conditions.

On behalf of the Student I give the school a world-wide, irrevocable, perpetual, royalty-free, licence (including the right to sub-license) to:

- modify in whole or in part the underlying content of the film;
- make a copy of the original or modified film;
- cause the original or modified film, in so far as it consists of visual images, to be seen in public, or, in so far as it consists of sounds, to be heard in public in whole or in part; and
- communicate the original or modified film to the public in whole or in part, in order to promote and support the Competition and the 2020 World Fisheries Congress.

I understand that the right to modify includes, without limitation, the right to edit, mix, combine, illustrate, and add special effects and/or other editing techniques to any part of a film. On behalf of the Student I waive any moral rights that are inconsistent with this.

I understand that, for privacy reasons, individual Students will generally not be credited in the film. On behalf of the Student I waive any moral rights that are inconsistent with this.
